No person ever took the steamer Creecent for Creecent City without experiencing new sensations of pleasure and a short stop at the little city makes any man or woman a lite long lover of the place.

In the town proper are some of the most beautiful homes to be found in the state and the people are callured and prosperous. There is a good school, two churches—Episcopal and Presbyterian—and two good hotels, besides pleasant private places where bearing the proper are moderate. The people have privated well-kept golf links for the entertainment of those who like this amusement. Crescent City has more orange groves than any other town in the county. Orange culture is the leading occupation of the people and the state. Almost every citizen of the place has a well-kept grove, many of which occupy the grove lots of the insorporation, while other extend into the country back. Faulty Packing.

Mr. John McCormick, head of the New York fruit commission house of McCormick, Hubbs & Co. and proba-bly the largest grove owner in Putand county, was in Crescent City from Saturday until Tuesday, a guest at Grove Hall. Mr. McCormick's orange and peach groves, covering about 70 acres, are situated in the outskirts of town. He looked over the properties thoroughly while here and to the News expressed himself as well pleased with the progress made in the growth of the trees since his last visit, though he confessed to some disappointment over the small quantity of fruit yielded, a condition he is unable to account for. Mr. McCormick stated that his firm had handled very little Crescent City fruit this season owing to the condition of the New York market-Growers have been enabled to get better prices in Boston. Such fruit as he had received from Florida, however, had been good, and he ex-pressed the belief that the Florida orange would not suffer in future by eason of its long absence from the

"There is one improvement, however," said he "that will have to be made by Florida growers, and that is in the packing. Florida oranges as a rule are poorly packed, and it is a rare thing to find a box of them that rare thing to find a box of them that does not contain some spoiled fruit. This should not be and can easily be remedied. When fruit is packed damp some of it is sure to spoil, and the discovery of one spoiled orange hurts the sale of the box. I believe that an orange should never be picked before 10 o'glock in the morning. ed before 10 o'clock in the morning. By that hour the dew has evaporated. We never lose a California orange by decay, and in my early experience in the fruit business, when we handled Mediterranean orange principally, we never lost any from that cause, though most of it was from 60 to 80 days in transit."

Mr. McCormick believes that Cres season of prosperity, but thinks that season of prosperity, but thinks that all growers shold pay more attention to the little details of the packing business in order to secure the largest measure of success. ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS: Baltimong, Md., March 30, 1901,

Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you Gentlemes: — Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I win now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to sing, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrit, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cose, but the hearing in the affected car would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertmement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises cased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartly and beg to remain

Very truly yours.
